

Connect with Your Constituents LIVE

Mane Content Live Delivers Your Message Beyond Town Hall Walls

The 2018 elections are around the corner, and it is vital for candidates to be out front. Town hall meetings and public announcements allow candidates to connect with constituents, and now they can capture audiences both in-house and via the web.

Mane Content Live empowers candidates to communicate with voters everywhere in real time, extending their message to computers, tablets, and mobile phones. Imagine everyone in the constituency connecting with candidates and hearing their message—simultaneously. The campaign trail just got a lot shorter.

Build the forum and platform that works best for you. Mane Content Live provides streaming to Facebook or YouTube, delivering a high definition image and clear sound using multiple broadcast-quality cameras and mics. Choose to answer questions from remote locations (or not). With Mane Content Live, it is easy to increase engagement with more constituents.
